Life Force Technologies, Inc.

1) Executive Summary

Statement of Purpose

Life Force Technologies, Inc. is a development and marketing company, focusing primarily on discovering and integrating breakthrough emergent technologies, integrating them into new products and applications and marketing those products to domestic and world markets. Life Force focuses primarily on services to the following market verticals:

- Medical / Healthcare / Life Science Technologies
- Telecommunications
- Information Management
- Security and Defense

The Need

In spite of its shortcomings America's healthcare industry leads the world in medical breakthroughs and innovation. However, for all the sophistication of technology, pharmaceuticals, treatment and health-sciences, the business side of healthcare has struggled to keep up and accounts for much of the over-hyped inefficiencies, fraud and dysfunction so visible in our current national debate about healthcare reform. Too many healthcare providers remain awash in the paperwork and business practices of the last century.

The Solution

Life Force has been focused, since its' founding, on identifying breakthrough technologies which will accomplish the following:

- Increase the quality of care while decreasing net cost.
- Reduce waste and fraud through common sense application of information technology.
- Make available medical products and services at a rate 25-50% less through the piggybacking of Life Force's contracts with large medical PPOs and pharmacies.
- Identifying new medical devices, pharmaceuticals, public health measures, and cross-cultural communications which will save lives and reduce public spending.

Medical / Healthcare / Life Sciences

The Company is introducing a range of innovative technologies to its unprecedented network of more than 2 million healthcare providers.

Life Force's provider network is a macro network of other national PPO networks which are commonly used by the large insurance companies such as Blue Cross, Aetna, Fortis (now Assurant), Cigna, and many others. This network includes the vast majority of hospitals, physicians, surgeons, clinics, dentists, ophthalmologists, optometrists, home nursing companies, mental health providers, alternative medicine providers, chiropractors and specialty medicine providers in the U.S., providing reduction of service fees (without regard to insurance) of 15-60%.

Life Force's pharmacy network includes 98.5% of the operational pharmacies in the U.S., including every pharmacy chain. Savings in the pharmacy average 25% but can reach 50% depending on the drug required.

Unique Technologies –

These technologies include new pharmaceutical drugs and medical devices, medical claims administration efficiencies and fraud control technologies that can deliver dramatic improvements in both results and cost containment, benefit and service plans that go far beyond current industry offerings, IT technologies that can dramatically reduce cost and inefficiency, and revolutionary treatment protocols that address some of the most deadly diseases known to mankind.

Over lifetimes of experience in the medical and healthcare industries, the founder and several of the Company's principals have assembled contracts and close working relationships with:

- A comprehensive national medical network consisting of the country's largest amalgamated medical network (more than 1.2 million healthcare providers) with more than 73% of the nation's practicing doctors and surgeons, 71% of the nation's hospitals and 99% of the nation's pharmacies participating.
- Unique insurance and non-insurance benefits products from 53 insurance underwriters, 221 national and regional PPO networks and several of the nation's leading discount POS companies, disease management and case management firms, claims adjudication software companies, and TPAs (third party administrators).
- An extensive network of large institutions, unions, pension funds, state and federal agencies and many other government and quasi-governmental entities.

Telecommunications & Information Technology

Many of the technologies being introduced in healthcare can also be applied to other industries.

Universal Language Translation -

Any industry that presently has a high volume of customer service calls, outbound telemarketing, web interactions, or uses call centers and/or automated phone attendants can benefit from Life Force's telecom products provided through its Abby™ software. (see the section below titled "Abby").

Remote Sensor and Control Systems -

Abby™ can also be used to enable verbal control of a wide range of remote control systems including computers, medical equipment, web technology, weapons and surveillance equipment, and web communications. Verbal interface with control systems have obvious advantages, but there are also innovative applications planned for "tele-health", remote diagnostics, and clean-room and/or quarantine healthcare applications in the healthcare industry. Remote diagnosis and treatment is widely perceived to be the only way in the future to provide quality treatment at a reduced cost.

Immediate Financial Needs

Management is currently seeking $7M in financing in order to execute its business plan. The proposed use of funds is as follows:

Life Force Technologies, Inc.

President (future), Peter Indovina

Peter R. Indovina brings almost 30 years of C-level executive management and entrepreneurial experience to Life Force, Inc.

He is currently a Director of High Net Worth Strategies, LLC, a company which he co-founded in 1979 under the original name of Unified Strategies of America, LLC. High Net Worth Strategies is a national consulting firm which provides innovative insurance and other financial strategies to affluent families, business owners, key executives and other high net worth individuals.

Mr. Indovina has specialized in start-up ventures, successfully taking new concepts, technologies, products, and strategies and developing them into highly profitable new entities. He has also been instrumental in strategic joint ventures and distribution networks, especially focusing on employee benefits, insurance planning, and advanced retirement solutions for high net worth individuals.

Mr. Indovina also founded and served as president of National Hospital & Health Care Service, Inc., which developed proprietary, creative, product and service solutions for business owners employing 100-1,000 employees. National Hospital & Health Care Service grew, under Indovina's leadership, to become one of the Midwest's largest employee benefits firms. National Hospital was sold in 1998 to a large publicly traded benefits and financial services firm, which retained his services as a consultant until 2001.

John Golden, Executive Vice President

John Golden will serve as Executive Vice President of Program Development and will be responsible for developing and expanding new markets, product lines, and joint ventures and for relations with stakeholders along with Dr. Bowers.

Vice President IT: Lyle Bickley

Mr. Bickley is one of the most experienced and respected IT professionals in the United States and currently the President of Bickley Consulting Inc. in Mountainside, California.

He served as Vice President of IT for the Phoenix Companies in their implementation of the early adaption of artificial intelligence for General Electric and the Americana Hospital Association, and as Product Manager for Tandem Computers Inc. prior to establishing his own firm in California.

His consulting company serves an international client list of Aerospace, Federal and State Governments, New Technologies, Enterprise Systems Manufacturers, startups and sophisticated end users.

Andrew Dengos, Vice President of National Accounts

Andrew Dengos will be responsible for securing and maintaining large national group accounts for The Company through his extensive network of medical decision makers. He was formerly the VP for national accounts for PCS (recently acquired by CAREMARK), the largest Pharmacy Benefits Management firm in the U.S.

Ron King, Vice President of Sales

Ron King, VP of Insurance Sales, presently CEO of King Insurance Group in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, will be responsible for insurance product sales and for licensing and other insurance regulatory issues, in concert with the Nickols Group. Collectively, King and Nickols bring 4,500 licensed brokers, quoting software, insurance licenses in all states, and a call center of licensed brokers to the company's capabilities.

Jim Manley, Vice President of Government Affairs

Jim Manley, presently CEO of Manley Associates of Cranbury, N.J., will assume responsibility for marketing company products and services to unions, associations and public service funds, which has been his area of expertise for the last 20 years. Mr. Manley is known and internationally respected as an advisor to union and public fund administrators in various investment vehicles for their pension funds. Full resumes on all principals are available as part of reciprocal due diligence efforts.

Patricia Bathurst, Vice President of Marketing

Ms. Bathurst brings more than 15 years of senior level marketing expertise to this position, including experience as a Board Director on several corporations and Vice President of Marketing for two public corporations. She is experienced in direct marketing campaigns, advertising agency coordination, public relations, retail chain marketing and customer service call center operations. Ms. Bathurst has direct experience marketing and selling to some of Life Force's primary target markets including insurance, banking and financial services, health care, travel industry and telecommunications (especially call center operations).

Cathy Lone-Dawson, Director of Implementation

Ms. Dawson is the President of CRM Matters, Inc., a Canadian firm which specializes in computer technology and marketing applications in the customer resource (call center) horizontal market, which cuts across all of the target markets of Life Force for Abby applications. Call centers constitute up to 50% of the variable costs for most major industries dealing with the public including banking, insurance, marketing, direct marketing, internet sales, financial services, travel, and telecommunications.

Ms. Dawson brings 25 years of experience working with CEOs and executive IT and marketing teams to create dynamic cutting edge strategies for growth. She has managed projects with major international clients including Holt Renfrew, Country Insurance, Aviva, Sprint, IBM Canada, Liberty Mutual, Daimler Chrysler, Scotia Bank, Contact Centre Consolidation, CaTech Systems, Bottom Line Group.

She is one of the few technical professionals intimately familiar with Abby technology, trained by senior Eidoserve technical personnel and able not only to market the technology but also to implement it and integrate it into major pending clients of Life Force. She has successfully managed one of the Abby applications at Air Trans Airlines, utilizing Abby to update and upgrade their international reservations systems.

John N. Harrison, National Account Director

Mr. Harrison brings 25 years as one of the nation's most successful software sales executives. He personally delivered more than $1 billion in software sales under several different companies.

Most recently he helped build Siebel systems from an $8 million to a $2 billion company before it was sold to Oracle Corp. Holding many positions there, including Vice President, over a period of 9.5 years, Mr. Harrison specialized in software sales to large national accounts, managing sales and distribution channels, and was one of Siebel's highest producing performers.

Prior to Siebel Systems Mr. Harrison was Director of Sales for Powersoft Corporation which, under his management, grew to become a $1 billion corporation and was ultimately sold to Sybase Corp.

Mr. Harrison was also Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Visibility, a manufacturing software company in Massachusetts. In that role, he grew sales more than 100% each year during the time he was there. John held other sales and sales management roles early in his career at Hewlett Packard and ASK Computer.

He holds a Bachelors degree from the University of New Mexico in Biology and Chemistry, and attended a graduate program at Sloan Business. He is certified from the Covey School of Management.
